Role-play / actor profile – Adam Diggle

Background

Adam leads our team of actors. He's an experienced corporate roleplay actor / facilitator who has been working in the industry for over a decade for a wide range of public and private sector clients.

He brings to life a wide range of characters, creating realistic and immersive roleplay scenarios, following this up with concise and focused constructive feedback to participants.

Adam also has a great deal of experience in facilitating group discussions and running drama-based training techniques such as forum theatre, hot-seating and thought-tracking.

Experience

Adam graduated from the prestigious Liverpool Institute for the Performing Arts BA acting programme in 2009.

Previous clients include public and private sector organisations such as: VW, National Grid, NHS, MOD, Lloyds Banking Group, Buckinghamshire County Council, Slough County Council, BMW, University College London, Network Rail, Isabel Hospice, Confused.com, South East Water, Campaign Bootcamp, Novacyt, Royal Academy of Arts, Dacorum BC, Zeiss, Orchard Hill College & Academy Trust, etc, etc.

Voiceover

Adam has been working in the voiceover industry since 2010 in a wide variety of areas, from ELT and telephony to animation and computer games. He has a home studio and regularly delivers voiceovers for a range of clients including Sainsbury's, Netflix, Eddie Stobart, The University of Manchester and Vodafone.