

Role-play / actor profile – Ruth Gibson

Background

Ruth has extensive experience working in corporate roleplay both in the public and private sector. Her detail and flexibility enable her to create characters and scenarios that encourage and build learning in a realistic and positive setting. Ruth is particularly skilled at offering specific, detailed feedback that supports the delegate, both within the roleplay and continuing into their work environment.

Ruth's experience as a facilitator includes forum theatre, hot-seating and group feedback sessions.

Experience

Ruth trained at Hull University and Guildford School of Acting and is currently in her final year at The University of London studying for a PPE MSc.

Previous clients include: KPMG, TalkTalk, Screwfix, NG Bailey, Tesco, Jigsaw, American Express, The British Army, The Home Office, Nuclear Decommissioning Authority, Department for Exiting Europe, NHS, Gatwick Airport, Local Councils.

Actor and Voice Artist

Ruth is an award winning actress working in theatre, film, television and voice over.

She has performed all over the world including the West End, National Theatre, New York and Tokyo, for the BBC, Channel 4 and the BFI. Ruth is the voice of BT & EE mobile phones and has recorded numerous adverts for television and radio as well as voicing many characters in animation and video games. She was featured on the BBC's Culture Show and in The Readers Digest as one of the UK's most famous voices.